

Parenting Between Cultures

West Leederville

Research reveals that it can be a challenge for parents to keep their culture as they raise their children in a new country. Getting the balance right between the development of a strong ethnic identity and incorporating the positive aspects of Australian society into parenting styles may prove difficult.

This workshop aims to strengthen the ability of culturally and linguistically diverse parents to raise their young and adolescent children confidently and capably in the Australian context.

Participants will be encouraged to explore various themes, amongst which will be:

- parenting styles that assist in transmitting family values
- how to set boundaries and consequences
- brain development and its effect on behaviour.

When: Wednesday 8 March, 2023

Time: 6.30pm to 9pm

Where: WEST LEEDERVILLE – Level 1, Southport St

Cost: $30 per person
